

Honoring Matt Dennis

by Bob Solheim (FFS IA Rep)

On Thursday, September 25th, at the "Jam Session" in Orlando, the five fans pictured below were privileged to honor Matt Dennis. Matt died at 88 years of age in June, 2002, after a marvelous career as a songwriter, voice coach, pianist, film star and singer.

On a recent rebroadcast of Marian McPartland's "Piano Jazz" where Matt was interviewed about his life in music, he pointed with pride to one of his favorite hit songs and the group that made it famous being "Love Turns Winter to Spring" and the group that made the song famous and Matt very proud - The Four Freshmen.

He also, of course, wrote "Angel Eyes" and many others. FFS fans having further interest should check out "Matt Dennis" on the world wide web (Internet) for biographical information and currently available compact discs.
