"Silly Book" by Ross Barbour

When Bill Martin and I put together that "Silly Song, Ridiculous Rhymes and Other Smiles" book, I left out a bunch of stuff.

The song title "If I Had Known When I Was Young That I Would Live This Long, I Would Have Taken Better Care of Myself" should have been in there.

And some inventions like 3-inch-tall refrigerators for cooling down your credit card on vacation trips.

And I didn't ask "Would Budweiser have the courage to put out a dark beer that's a light beer for people to drink day OR night?"

Maybe I shouldn't send all my up-dates now, and save some for next issue. That "Silly Book" doesn't make Bill or me any richer. The Freshmen Society gets all the money. That's all right. Bill and I have all the money we'll ever need as long as we don't buy anything.

Bill Fontana

Wherever Needed by Bob Baker

The voice on the phone recording was familiar and the message reassuring..."Bob, whatever I can do to help the Convention Task Force, all you need to do is ask!" I asked often and for great and varied reasons, knowing of Bill's love for the Freshmen.

We had met several years before at an Aliquippa, PA Frosh Concert Bill was hosting at Chick Trafford's request. I discovered that this big and engaging guy had a Radio and television background that lent itself well in his desire to aid the Freshmen as he has done so many times. Last summer's Pittsburgh Convention is a prime example. Mr. Fontana sold concert tickets, announced at the Fan/Jam and both concerts, and was at my side seeking out what had to be done next. His attitude was typical of our entire gang. Bill brought his unique talent and energy at a time when it was most needed.

The Fontana family resides in the Beaver Valley of Western Pennsylvania. This area was also the scene of Bill's most recent Freshmen endeavor. The Boys were booked this fall into a community concert in Beaver Falls which attracted a sell-out crowd of (1400). He personally sold in excess of $1500 worth of CD's and DVD's.

Willing and Dependable...Thank You Bill!
