FOR THE FFS-THANKS

By Dick Baldwin, President

As ongoing interest in the Four Freshmen, the Society has a financial opportunity to support and contribute resources for special projects by the #22 FF, as well as material from past performances or recordings. It is and always has been "open" for the FFS membership to back any of these album productions or special projects.

In many instances Freshmen programming can hastily surface, react now not later for best results, and a helpful special budget line can determine the speed of a new project. FFS donations can make a difference in timely production activity.

Should FFS members desire to be included in special project-budgeting, offer that consideration directly to the FFS Treasurer Jim Whitmire. His contacts appear under Financial Office (p.2). We do not function as a (501) (c) (3) organization, thus support is not a tax issue. Not asking - just reminding!

My most recent experienced FFS donation has been with Tony Leone from Washington, PA, 22 miles south of Pittsburgh on Interstate 79. Tony on more than one occasion has contributed to keep jazz harmony alive. His most recent $1,000 gift derives from a long-lasting interest after first connecting with FF concerts in the 1960s.

Tony Leone knows a good tune when he hears one! Are you in tune?
