More "Barbour-isms"

Refined: What! Another traffic ticket?

Peanut Gallery: Art show that sticks to the roof of your mouth.

Bear cats: What mama kitties do.

Required: Different people to sing in church.

Mistake: Vegetarians do that.

A FRESHMEN LP FOR THE ANTIQUE ROADSHOW?

Last October, while searching through a stack of records in a Paso Robles, CA antique shop, I came across "The Four Freshmen in Person", the one they recorded live at Junior College in 1958. But there was something different about it. The entire back side of the jacket was all in Japanese except that the song titles in parentheses were in English. The album carried the number 2LP-99 (T1-1008, The Capitol #). And both on the disc and on the jacket it said "Mfg. by Tokyo Shibaura Electric Co. Ltd in Japan".

The original price sticker says $2.25. On the front is a picture of the fellows, Ross, Bob, Don and Ken Albers on the bass (left to right). Other logos appearing on the sleeve say: Capitol Records, High Fidelity, and in a box in the upper right hand corner it says "Ever Clean Records".

If your collection of Freshmen LP's would be more complete with this one, let me know what it may be worth to you.

A special gift for the Four Freshmen Society from The Four Freshmen

When the Freshmen went into the studio in the summer of 2007 to create their very successful "Snowfall" CD, they invited a videographer. The plan was to produce (at their expense) a "Making of" video as a gift to the FFS.

It's taken a while to get it prepared and much of that delay, sadly, I'm responsible for.

But it's done now and it's up on the FFS website. Yes, it's after Christmas now, but the video works all year 'round. So here y'go:
