What a beautiful place, and what made it even more so? Our boys were there, I was visiting my son and this really made my vacation even better.

They were appearing at the beautiful Anneberg Theater in Palm Springs. Curtis seems to be the spokesman of the group, and he does a great job. His trumpet is a crowd favorite also.

The group was well received by the crowd, each one showing their specialty, and in my opinion they never sounded better. Starting out with Somethings Gotta Give, You Stepped Out Of A Dream, Young And Foolish, You've Got Me Crying Again, Angel Eyes (one of my favorites), plus I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus, along with most of the favorites.

Then it was time to close, I always hate to see the end of the show.

I have a suggestion, when you are traveling, check the computer and see where the Four Freshmen are appearing. It makes an added pleasure to your vacation!
