

Annapolis is a great town for the FFS convention. There are two major airports within 30 miles (Washington Reagan National Airport and Baltimore Washington International Airport). And if you don't fly, Annapolis is easy to get to from I-95, U.S. Rt. 50, and both the Baltimore and Washington beltways.

We have lots going on to entertain you (beyond the music). Annapolis is home to the U.S. Naval Academy. There are walking tours of the Naval Academy, trolley tours of Annapolis, and boat tours of the Waterfront and nearby areas.

In addition to meeting and listening to the performing Freshmen, Bob Flanigan, Ross Barbour and more FF alumni will be here adding to the joy.

DoubleTree Hotel
Annapolis, Maryland

We're fortunate to have the DoubleTree Hotel as our host hotel. Not only is it a beautiful facility with a historically low room rate and free parking, but it's located just a short bus ride from downtown (buses are included in the registration price).

We're designing a really great-looking collared commemorative shirt in navy blue with the convention logo. Men's and Ladies' sizes are available to order when you register; they'll be waiting for you when you arrive in Annapolis.

Plan to arrive on Thursday, August 19th if you can. We'll have a number of Freshmen-related activities including the "113 Club" where you can load up on FF memorabilia and recordings, and the "FF Wannabe" room where we'll be singing FF charts together. If you've never heard scores of voices singing "It's a Blue World" using the FF charts led by Ross Barbour – well, it's got to be experienced! Thursday evening is our traditional Jam Session, anchored by a professional Jazz Quartet where FreshFans and FF alumni can sit in on instruments and voices. The Jam Session is always great fun.
