KUDOS FROM COTTONWOOD

Mel Meyers (AZ Rep)

January 16th at Mingus High School Auditorium, Cottonwood, AZ, provided the perfect time and weather to hear the Four Freshmen in Concert. The show started at 3 PM in deference to the weather and audience and both were perfect. This concert brought in about 800 lovers of the Four Freshmen sound. They were not disappointed.

The Guys were introduced by the writer and the love affair started. They performed some old, some new, and some in-between tunes all pretty much collected from the "Great American Songbook."

The release of "Live in Holland" and "In Session" CDs provided much of the content of the show, but Brian steered the menu into some "oldies" and the final result was a very pleasant musical "warm blanket" that enveloped the starved audience into a very appreciative, responsive audience. Many Arizona members were there and all who attended felt the warmth of their offerings.

In addition to the audience attendees, Mike Vax, ex-Kenton trumpeter and now big band leader also came. We were able to chat and compare notes for the upcoming cruise offered by Jeri Kelly. Several brochures were taken and there seemed to be a great deal of interest about this Mexican cruise. Mike is of course leading his big band on the cruise.

The Guys really looked prim and proper in their "serious" suits. After the break they returned to the stage and their second set was rewarded by much applause and a standing ovation to "And So It's Over."

Freshfans who read this article should also come away with the belief that the new "In Session" CD is a "KILLER."

These Four Freshmen are so GOOOOOOOOOOOD!
