The Making of "OLD FRIENDS" by Bob Solheim A NEW CD by Group No. Five

In early June I called our esteemed editor from our home in the St. Louis suburbs and asked if he'd like an article about a musical project I've been involved in for six years. As his reaction was enthusiastic, I'll tell my story.

Captain Video
(Eric Solheim)

Mr. Engineer
(Paul Halac)

Recording Assistant
(Ted Sitterley)

In June 1997, when we were living in Green Valley, Arizona, I saw an ad in a Tucson newspaper regarding "Jazz records for sale." As a believer in "King Vinyl," I ventured north full of anticipation. I was not disappointed and left with several worthwhile albums and, unbelievably, a two track open reel tape of a Four Freshmen concert recorded at Kankakee, IL in November 1974.
