State Rep Recognition

APRIL: Lois Frye (FL), Jim Bennie (CA)

MAY: Dave Barnes (VA)

JUNE: Barbara Meyers (NV), Bill Truitt (CO)

Note: FFS Membership Directors have noticed an increased amount of State Reps and Regional Directors attending concerts. Several Representatives from other states are pitching in at concerts in states other than their own. This makes for a true bonding experience, better and faster service to the concert attendee, as well as some special social time together. This is a good thing! You are all working hard and achieving tremendous goals. We appreciate each of you.

Freshmen Arrangements by Ross Barbour

Ken Albers told me a neat story the other day. It seems a fan saw Ken's ad in the Fresh News a while back, and he misunderstood. He thought Ken was selling EACH of his arrangements for $28.50, so he sent $57.00 for two. It's a natural mistake. I think they are worth that too. But Ken (he's a nice guy) mailed out the ten for $28.50 and refunded the man's $28.50 overpayment. It prompted me to write this:

Ken will send you authentic Freshmen arrangements of ten songs we Freshmen wrote. They are:

1. Love Lost
2. Lonely For My Love
3. Oh Lonely Winter
4. First Affair
5. Night Time
- *6. Freshman Year
7. Tears in Our Eyes
8. Nashville Blues
9. Don't Make Me Sorry
10. And So It's Over

Just mail a check for $28.50 to:

Ken Albers
Box 941124
Simi Valley, CA 93094

Overseas orders please add $3.00.

If your quartet wants to perform them, OK. If you want to frame them to decorate your den, OK. They are pretty enough to do that too! (*Yes, that's "MAN.")
