

Rest In Peace:
Honorable Douglas E. Robertson,
Esquire
(Nov. 20, 1937 - May 26, 2005)

Our Freshfan friend died on Thursday, May 26, 2005, at the Medical Center in Bowling Green (KY). He is surely missed by his Masonic and Shrine brothers and mourned by his many friends and family.

He practiced law for 41 years in Bowling Green and retired in the summer of 2004. He is survived by his wife of 38 years, Jeane Robertson, and a wonderful extended family.

Because of his original role as "Daddy Warbucks" in "Annie," a Fountain Square Players production at the Capital Arts Center in 1984 and again in 1999, Doug became a celebrity in the Bowling Green area.

He was graduated from Indiana University at Bloomington and received his law degree from Vanderbilt University. In those years he sang and acted extensively, and subsequently acted, directed and produced plays at the Alley Playhouse which he once co-owned.

A long-standing member of The Four Freshmen Society he hosted the society's annual convention in 2002 and assisted the fan club in incorporation and other legal matters. Freshmen fans from all over the world enjoyed that convention enthusiastically.

In lieu of flowers, it is requested that memorials be made to the Fountain Square Players, SKYPAC of Bowling Green, Humane Society No Kill Shelter, Bowling Green Masonic Lodge or the Four Freshmen Society, % Charles H. Trafford, 315 So. Maple Ave., PO BOX 993, Greensburg, PA 15601-0993.

FN July, August, September 2005

THIS I KNOW
(author unknown)

(Dedicated to my dear loving husband and best friend - Jeane Robertson)

I know not much, but this I know,
Spring always follows winter's snow.
And I know, too, that night gives way
Every Sunrise to dawning day.

There has to be somewhere a powerful mind
That has planned the seasons & made mankind.
And I shouldn't doubt that he's watching there
And that His judging must be fair.

And when He made the plan, for you and me,
For all things to full circle be,
I'm sure He made a plan for life to be once more,
And not to be the opening and closing of a door.

Our Apologies...

The writers who submitted articles are to be praised and extolled! This issue was a real "bear" and we had so much the Amsterdam Convention Committee needed for "one more try" to get as many FFS'ers to this convention! We will give every consideration to your fine piece next time!!!

Chick

Alphabetical Freshmen List 1948-2005

Albers, Ken (1956-1982 - 26 years)
Barbour, Don (1948-1960 - 12 years)
Barbour, Ross (1948-1977 - 29 years)
Beisner, Mike (1981-89 and 1990 & 91-94 - 11 years)
Brown, Ray (1973-1977 - 4 years)
Calderon, Curtis (2001- Current - 4 years and counting)
Comstock, Bill (1960-1973 - 14 years)
Eichenberger, Brian (1996-Current-9 years and counting)
Errair, Ken (1953-1956 - 3 years)
Ferreira, Bob (1992-Current - 14 years and counting)
Flanigan, Bob (1948-1992 - 45 years)
Goodman, Autie (1977-1992 - 15 years)
Grabner, Newton (1987 - 3 months only)
Grillo, Dennis (1977-1982 - 5 years)
Henley, Rod (1982-86 and 3 mo. in 1987 - 4 + years)
Jennings, Dave (1986/87 - 6 months only)
Johnson, Vince (1999-Current - 7 years and counting)
Kratzsch, Hal (1948-1953 - 5 years)
Marcy, Kirk (1987/88 - 1 year)
McIntosh, Alan (1994-96 - 3 years)
Rosenberg, Garry Lee (1988-91 - 3-1/2 years)
Stegeman, Greg (1990-2001 - 12 years)
Stout, Kevin (1991-1999 - 8 years)