

Harold Betters

Special Guest Musician

Harold Betters, is a remarkable man who has enjoyed a career spanning over four decades and is admired and respected by fellow musicians, friends, and fans nation-wide.

He headlined at THE ENCORE in Shadyside for so many years, it became known as "The House That Betters Built." Harold has performed with Louis Armstrong who described his sound as "rich and honest." Other musicians he has worked with include Al Hirt, Slide Hampton, Ramsey Lewis, and Urbie Green. The Harold Betters Quartet toured with Ray Charles and appeared with comedian, Dick Gregory, at New York's Apollo Theater. THE MAN and his horn are legendary.

Sue Raney

Special Guest Artist

Whether it's Johnny Mandel, Michel LeGrand, Julie Andrews or the Bergmans expounding praises for song stylist Sue Raney; she is, from all aspects, mistress of her craft. Leonard Feather had described Raney as "instiller of goose bumps." LeGrand used the words, "tenderness, charm, extraordinary ability to swing." Blessed with an enviable range - every note luxurious, Raney is also persuasive with a lyric.
