FFS WANNABEES ON A ROLL & IN TUNE by Dick Baldwin

It's one of the fun times at our annual convention weekends. The participation continues to build and FFS Members rehearse charts prior to joining the waves of Freshmen tunes ringing throughout the hotel.

Are you up to it?

Veteran promoter Bill Martin refuses to take credit for the buildup of the popular songfests. Bill credits Japan's Yas Ichiura as the originator of the group. So, let it be with an assist from Ross Barbour. There would be no session without Dr. Barbour's advanced, easy way with a FF song. And, Jim Greenslate, FFS veteran handles much of the directing as a pioneer member.

Check the Atlanta line-up for the multiple sessions of the Wannabees. If you are not an old timer in the group, fake it. There are no grades in Professor Barbour's borderline academic setting.

Should you want to contact Bill, use his e-mail (pmbill@alltel.net). He'll give you some tunes to work on so that Ross won't assign you to the JVs or modified roster.

Live From Las Vegas CD On The Air (Dick Baldwin, FFS President)

For all active FFS members who listen to the airwaves!

In discussion with Dina at IVI we agreed to promote the FF on air with the latest CD, while the Four Regional Reps are identifying potential booking dates for the group - THE AMBASSADORS.

Above are two timely projects by the FFS.

FOR THE FOUR FRESHMEN!

ID local DJs in your area who play or might play The Four Freshmen. Forward this information to Music Mart's Bob Lininger. Per your instructions, Bob will mail the Live in Las Vegas disc free directly to you for your personal contact with the DJ at the station. Note DJ name, station call letters, radio band number, station address, phone number & e-mail. Forward to Chick (editor) at Fresh News to include in "Fresh Sounds" section.

Easy, and an entry for some live air play. IVI continues to handle the commercial companies, who supply stations with prepared music tapes and feeds. However, if you have interesting satellite or production organizations, let us know.

Believe the local broadcasters would appreciate your close attention and Freshmen friendship.

It's worth the time and effort!

After a many-year search, I have finally located the 1955 Jane Wyman/Charleton Heston film in which the FF sing "HOW CAN I TELL HER?"

This is a nice love story that takes place in the early 1940's in a poor Texas town that becomes a boom-town after they strike oil.

It has just now become available on DVD from:
www.joesclassicmovies.com for $9.50 plus shipping

I think that all FFS members should at least be made aware of this precious piece of FF memorabilia.

A tall San Francisco trombone player in Northern California's Rossmoor Big Band and FFS member with a rich and active music background suggested at our Portland convention that the unique Freshmen harmony, four voices making a five sound is most unusual. Bart Miller inquired - "Can we talk about it (maybe as a way to grow the FF fan base)?" And, we did. Former FF followers have done so in the past, putting four voices together in music language we all could comprehend. Bart Miller, dealing in real estate during the business day, desired to dig into the depths of THE SOUND. What better direction to take than request Ross Barbour to delve into the subject? Ross here offers a new intro to the comprehensive Mosaic Record album (The Capitol Years) notes and description of the FF Sound. Thanks Bart for your spark and signal that Ross return to the original charts, signature, and FF contributions to vocal jazz harmony. Growing the so-called fan base is always a concern of the Society and it remains on our long view agenda. Take it, Ross!

THE UNIQUE FRESHMEN SOUND by Ross Barbour

The Freshmen wanted to sing five-part chords, but they had only four voices. We found, if we sang the four harmonies correctly, spread the chord over a wide area and chose the right notes, our sound caused a harmonic vibration in the listener's ear. That harmonic note is called an "overtone". When we sang four notes, and the listener's ear made up one, the listener was hearing a 5-note chord by four voices. Of course, there are many other ingredients to the prescription.

GOOD MEN

First, you must find three other guys who have the same dream you have, guys who will like each other and who's voices sound like a quartet, and who play the correct instruments. Oh . . . and they'll have to be willing to rehearse a lot to perfect the sound, and to travel a lot. When you have all that, you start with these other things.

USE VOLUME

Don't be timid even on slow songs. You decided to make this sound, so make it broadly and proudly. Put yourself into it, and care a lot. If you love it, you'll make each chord exciting.

PRONOUNCE

Each word should be pronounced the same way by all members. If he is singing "Ooooo" with a smile, correct him. "Ooooo" and "Oh" require a round mouth, and never sing "yew". Practice that until it becomes a habit. If you are singing "Tiiime," and he is singing "Timmme," you must agree on one or the other. Never sing "Tieem".

NO VIBRATO

This is important. Read it twice. Vibrato kills quartet chords. If you have a vibrato, lose it. If you can't lose it, go to another group. You may use the vibrato during a vocal solo only.

GOOD SONG

Choose a song that lends itself to the good chords you plan to sing. Then, sing every chord that will fit. Don't overdo and become absurd. Try to make the song prettier. We usually sang the melody "as written" the first time through out of respect for the author. We made our changes in the second time through.

UNISON

You should sing the chords in unison. One contrasts with the other. Unison should be sung using more air than you would use in the quartet sound. Two voices are enough. Unison should be sung with no "edge" on the voice. The sweetest words you ever heard were whispered. Make this a musical whisper. Oh. . . get closer to the mike.

SPREAD THE CHORD

Open it up so it covers a wide area. Use every inversion and suspension you can think of. Then, use the simplest chord as a surprise. You are free to use the upper notes in the chord, so leave out the tonic, unless it is the melody note. Choose a MA 9th chord, and put it where it fits and enjoy it --- don't fear it. Sing each chord so well it "says its name" --- "I'm a D 9th" or "I'm a G6". If you make the chord so complicated it doesn't "say its name," change that chord. Rehearse chords without background and without tempo. Hear each chord as long as it takes to get it right. Then you have heard it right. When you do it in tempo, expect each chord to sound like that. After you have learned the notes, then you start learning how to make them "ring".

MOVING NOTES

You should invent places in the arrangement for a voice to be moving while the others hold their notes. Each time that a moving part changes, the other parts should accent that change. It becomes a series of emphasized chords. The listener will be pulling for you to make each chord exciting.

NO PIANO

Never use the piano playing the exact notes you are singing. Real harmonizing requires the singer to sing a note differently. If it is a minor third in the chord, then becomes the major 7th in the next chord, the voice must change that note to make it harmonize in each chord. A piano cannot do that.

LONG TONES

Your quartet should hold those seven-beat notes for the full seven beats and maintain the full intensity and the full volume. Rehearse it that way. If you rehearse half-heartedly, you'll perform half-heartedly.

OTHER STUFF

We used "staggered quarters" often (3 notes in two beats) and we always sang them a little behind the beat. The major 7th with the 9th was one of our favorite chords. Don't have the low part sing the tonic notes. The bass viol will be playing that so the low voice is free to do other stuff.

Some fans refer to our chords as "Color Chords." If you imagine the 1, 3, and 5 of the chord being the primary colors, red, blue, and green, then the upper harmonies could be pink, olive, teal, purple, and lavender, etc. You can sing the rainbow of colors. It's a fact of life. Quartets are breakable. It is a surprise when they stay together. You may spend more time solving disagreements than rehearsing. Arguing is useful when it results in a decision: but, if the same guy is starting all the arguments, he is telling you he is not happy where he is. If you don't have a happy group, you won't have a group long enough to prove anything.

Four Freshmen Society Convention 2009 Atlanta, Georgia August 20 – 22, 2009

Boy! Are we gonna have fun!!

If you've been to one or more of the preceding twenty Four Freshmen Conventions, you know what a great time everyone has. If you haven't been to one (and why on earth haven't you?), you really need to join us in Atlanta and find out what all the buzz is about.

For us, the Convention is all about two things:

- 1) hearing the great music of the Four Freshmen performed by arguably the best FF group – ever, and
- 2) visiting with a few hundred like-minded fans.

We've planned this Convention to maximize both of those wishes.

Atlanta is a great town for the FFS convention. For one thing, just about every airplane comes through Atlanta on its way to somewhere so getting a reasonably priced ticket is a snap. And if you don't fly, three different Interstate highways converge here.

We have lots going on to entertain you (beyond the music). Atlanta is home to the world's largest aquarium and we've organized a pair of tours that include visiting the Georgia Aquarium and either The World of Coke (Coca-Cola's world headquarters is here) or behind-the-scenes at the Cable News Network (CNN).

In addition to meeting and listening to the performing Freshmen, Bob Flanigan, Ross Barbour and more FF alumni will be here adding to the joy.

We're fortunate to have the Crowne Plaza at Ravinia Hotel as our host hotel. Not only is it a beautiful facility with a historically low room rate and free parking, but it's located on the North side of Atlanta across the street from the 173-store Perimeter Mall. And it's only a $2.25 rapid transit ride from the Airport!

We've designed a really great-looking collared commemorative shirt in black with the convention logo. Shirts are 100% Pima Cotton pique. Men's and Ladies' sizes are available to order along when you register; they'll be waiting for you when you arrive in Atlanta.

Plan to arrive on Thursday, August 20th if you can. We'll have a number of Freshmen-related activities including the "113 Club" where you can load up on FF memorabilia and recordings, and the "FF Wannabee" room where we'll be singing FF charts together. If you've never heard scores of voices singing "It's a Blue World" using the FF charts led by Ross Barbour – well, it's got to be experienced! Thursday evening is our traditional Jam Session, anchored by the Greg McLean Jazz Quartet where FreshFans and FF alumni can sit in on instruments and voices. The Jam Session is always great fun.

Friday there are other FF activities and the tours mentioned above. The optional tours are scheduled so as not to conflict with any FFS sessions so you won't miss anything. Tour A is the Georgia Aquarium and The World of Coke; Tour B is the Georgia Aquarium and CNN.

Friday night's dinner will be followed by a concert starring the Four Freshmen backed by the outstanding GPC Jazz Ensemble:

The Ensemble is a seventeen-piece big band comprised of outstanding musicians with deep knowledge of big band jazz charts.

Saturday will have more FFS activities including the FFS Membership meeting where you'll get an update on the FFS and plans for the future. Saturday night's dinner music will be provided by the Greg McLean Jazz Quartet and will lead into the second Four Freshmen concert of the weekend.

Don Kennedy, host of the nationally syndicated radio show “Big Band Jump” will act as Master of Ceremonies for both Friday and Saturday night. If it’s about the Big Band era, Don knows all about it! Check him out (and catch his show) at www.bigbandjump.com and visit with him in the “113 Club” at the Convention.

It’s going to be a wonderful three days of fun with our favorite singing group. The hotel has graciously extended the low room rate three days before and three days after the convention so you can spend more quality time in Atlanta. There’s lots to do here and we’ve already put in our order for low temperature and zero humidity!

What should I do now?

Fill out and mail in your Registration Form found here in FreshNews. If you don’t find the form, call us at 770-394-2663 and we’ll get you another. Table assignments are made on a first come, first served basis so you want to get your registration in pronto. If there are FreshFans you want to share your table with, be sure to put their names on your form – and get them to send in their form pronto, too. Remember that the rate changes May 1st so be sure to take advantage of this early registration opportunity! If you prefer to register online, you can do that, too. Just go to www.ffs2009.com and follow the instructions. Got friends who aren’t FFS members? They can come, too, by joining the FFS at a special convention rate; what a wonderful introduction to the Freshmen!

Call the Crowne Plaza reservations line at 800-381-9553, use the Event Group Code “FFS” and make your hotel reservations. Do it now!

Plan your travel and be here in August!

The latest information is always on the FFS 2009 Convention website www.ffs2009.com so check there often for the latest news. Questions? Email us at info@ffs2009.com or give us a ring at 770-394-2663.

See you August 20-22nd!!

Freshmen in Corpus Christi, Texas
by Ann Smith, Texas Coordinator

On Friday, February 20th the Freshmen performed in Corpus Christi at Del Mar College, as part of a concert series called "Corpus Christi Live". The program began with a rousing "Something's Gotta Give", followed by a lilting "You Stepped Out of a Dream". Next we heard a haunting version of "Invitation", contrasted by a lively "Young and Foolish". Then followed "You've Got Me Crying Again" (slow, beautiful harmony), "It's All Right With Me" (upbeat), and a hypnotic rendition of "Angel Eyes". Then we were treated to an energetic "Somebody Loves Me" and a beautiful long time favorite "Mam'selle".

Rearranging themselves around one mike, the Freshmen rendered a whimsical version of "Easy Street", then "Please Remember", a favorite from way back when, followed by a bouncy "Give Me the Simple Life". Moving back to four mikes, the guys captivated us with "I Remember You".

At the intermission, CD and DVD sales were brisk. The DVD "Live From Las Vegas" has now become available in audio version too. Sales of this new CD no doubt contributed to the enthusiastic purchases by Freshmen fans. Many people took applications to the Four Freshmen Society and expressed a great deal of interest.

In the second segment, (still around one mike) the Freshmen delighted us with "Poinciana", "If I Had You", and a spellbinding "Little Girl Blue". A lively "There Will Never Be Another You" was contrasted by a forlorn "Goodbye". From the stage Curtis jokes about some of the "depressing" songs they sing. This would surely include (from this program) "Goodbye", "You've Got Me Crying Again", and especially "Little Girl Blue" (not to mention "Old Friends" and "Their Hearts Were Full of Spring", which were not on tonight's show). This is definitely not a complaint, because we love the beautiful harmonies in these songs. For a change of pace, the Freshmen then sang "Day By Day" and "Blue World", both of which always draw enthusiastic applause of recognition when they begin.

Moving back to four mikes, the evening was capped off with "Everytime We Say Goodbye", followed by Bob Ferreira's gorgeous solo "How Do You Keep The Music Playing". The show was concluded with an unbelievably enthusiastic "Day In, Day Out". The crowd went wild. The entire performance was irresistibly mood elevating, as are all the Four Freshmen concerts.

THE FF BANNER IS A BANG!

Past Fresh News issues have called the FFS to spread the sound of the Freshmen National Anthem. And, I haven't gone away.

The FF "Banner" sounds better than ever.

Those members attending Atlanta will receive a free copy of the CD to give to their favorite organization. I've selected the school athletic departments in my area. Society's Mel Myers (Toledo) is into auto shows in Ohio with his Frosh disc.

Why don't you join us? Is there a better gesture than honoring America with the Four Freshmen?

"OOPS" by Ross Barbour

Maybe we mis-named the CD when we called it "Remembering Ken". It is not a memorial service - not a bunch of stories told fondly about Ken Albers. It is a concert we did August 15, 1967 in Ashland, Kentucky.

It is music, applause, Leroy, comedy, and Ken is in there doing his thing on trumpet, mellophone, and bass. He sings the bottom part on most songs, and the second part on a few to help Bill through some voice trouble.

Maybe you have in-person recordings of some of these songs, but do you have "Strangers in the Night" or "Spring Isn't Spring Without You" (Ken and Bill wrote that one)? Bob Flanigan stopped the show with "What Now My Love" (a bass solo "to go down in history").

The original recording ran out before it got all of Bill's "The Gal That Got Away", but we left the start of it in the CD. You'll be glad it is in there - - and I think you'll be glad to have that little silver circle in your collection.

"ROSS' DEFINITIONS"
