

The Freshmen Were Impressive @ Feinsteins in Hollywood!

by Joe Smart (FFS-CA)

I will treasure my experiences during the Four Freshmen's booking @ the beautiful new "Cinegrill" at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel. It was wonderful. Here is a pictorial summary I hope you enjoy!

"Mystery Guest" - This trumpet player showed up on opening night. His association with the Freshmen goes back decades....the legendary Jack Sheldon!

Highlights!

Bob Ferreira's treatment of the Michele LeGrande's beautiful ballad "How Do You Keep the Music Playing."

Bill Comstock's chart for "Early Autumn" had me going down memory lane remembering the wonderful Ralph Burns arrangement for Woody Herman's First Herd and a 17-year-old kid named Stan Getz.

The beautiful closer, "Over the Rainbow," performed a cappella...with no amplification...was really breathtaking. It left everyone smiling!
