

The Beach Boys and The Four Freshmen by Roger Salts (England)

I see Brian Wilson of The Beach Boys has a mention this time. Now that YouTube is available, with its cross-referencing feature, I've often thought that if The Four Freshmen mimicked a Beach Boys number in their act it could be used to good effect on that channel and maybe increase the fanbase.

Similarly with Bob's quality solo voice producing more Streisand numbers that could be uploaded as well. You will see that on YouTube the Beach Boys' and Streisand's "visits" are in six figures on some numbers of theirs.

FFS Members:

The cost of printing and mailing FreshNews continues to climb and consume funds that could be better used in support of the performing Freshmen.

We're offering you the opportunity to opt out of the snail-mailed copy of FreshNews that you get each quarter - and get your copy of FreshNews even more quickly.

For some time, each issue of FreshNews has been put on the FFS website the same day it's published. You can view the current issue easily--and issues all the way back through 2002 online.

Viewing FreshNews Online has several advantages:

- 1.) We don't have to kill as many trees and continue to incur so much of the spiraling printing and mailing costs.
- 2.) You will get your online version of FreshNews instantly when it's ready for circulation.
- 3.) Since FreshNews is online in Acrobat format, you can zoom the type to any size you want; this is especially helpful for those of us with, shall we say, less than perfect eyesight.
- 4.) If color is used, you'll see that color on-screen.
- 5.) You can print a copy on your own printer if you want a paper copy; and, you can print only those pages that interest you.

If you're unaware of how to view FreshNews online, you can do so by going to www.fourfreshmensociety.com/freshnews

For members who still want a printed/mailed copy, including those who are not on-line (about 1/3 of us) we will, of course, continue to publish and mail FreshNews in paper form for you. But we're offering you the opportunity to opt out of the snail-mail version to help us control costs.

* If you want to help by reading the FreshNews online only, just send an e-mail to freshnews@fourfreshmensociety.com and say "opt out" anywhere in your response. If you do so, it will save the FFS money now (and even more in the future) and help us avoid dues increases.
