

During Intermission Bob Frye and Charlie Dana, "FFS-husbands extraordinaire," manned the CD table and reported that sales were heavy during Intermission and continued for some time after the show. Lois Frye and I had another table with information about the Four Freshmen Society and how to become a member. Lois also had a nice photo display of the Freshmen and made her own scrapbook available for people to look through. Jeri Ann Kelly (Camelback Odyssey Travel) sent us plenty of flyers regarding the upcoming Jazz Cruise in November and much of this information was picked up. In fact, Lois and I went home with almost empty briefcases.

Brian asked the audience if they had any requests. Someone in the back called out "TIGER RAG"! After some banter with the audience, the guys regrouped with "Early Autumn." The encore selections of "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" and "The Star Spangled Banner" almost caught the crowd off guard - but pleasantly so.

The Fabulous Four graciously mingled with the crowd after the show. They happily signed autographs and posed for pictures - something that always makes their fans feel really special - what a nice trait.

A question for Brian....When can we expect your arrangement of "TIGER RAG"? (Photos by Lois Frye)
